

WATCH THIS SPACE TOMORROW

For Important Announcement

The Homer Fitts Company

MONTPELIER

Case of Montpelier vs. Mrs. Hannah Gallagher Again Continued.

The case of city of Montpelier vs. Mrs. Hannah Gallagher, involving the ownership of a strip of land on Cliff street, which has been continued several times in city court, was continued this forenoon until tomorrow. For the past few years teamsters have been subjected to much annoyance at the hands of the defendant, who has refused to allow them to turn around on her land, the street ending opposite her residence. Several times the police have been called to the scene to persuade Mrs. Gallagher to allow the teams to turn around and for some time the city has been accumulating evidence in the matter. It is the contention of the city that the highway was established some 25 years ago and that the land in question is part of the highway. This morning A. A. Sargent, who has acted as counsel for the defendant severed connections with his client and H. J. Conant was engaged as counsel.

Funeral services for Mrs. Jeremiah Deady, whose death occurred Sunday morning at the home of James Doyle on Barre street, were held at 9 o'clock this forenoon at St. Augustine's church. Rev. P. J. Long officiating. The body was taken to Burlington by automobile hearse, where burial was made in St. Joseph's cemetery.

Mrs. J. C. King left to-day for Charles town, N. H., after spending ten days in the city with relatives.

Miss Marion Teel left to-day for Springfield, Mass., after visiting friends in the city for a few days.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles P. Chandler, who were married last week at Hammondsport, N. Y., have arrived in the city and are residing at the Chandler residence on School street.

As the result of an accident which took place near Waterbury ten days ago, O. E. Styles of Stowe paid fines and costs in city court yesterday morning amounting to $218.25. He pleaded guilty to operating an automobile without a license, for which a fine of $100 was inflicted; to intoxication, $5 fine, and operating an automobile while intoxicated, $100 fine. Justin Marshall, Styles' companion was killed in the accident, the auto smashing into a post alongside the highway.

Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Brigham, who have passed several months in this city and at Lake Mansfield, left yesterday afternoon for their home in Battle Creek, Mich.

The Republican state committee have been apprised of the dates upon which speakers of national repute, including President William H. Taft, will speak in Vermont campaign, but the exact places where the rallies will be held have not been decided upon as yet. Wade Ellis of Ohio will speak Oct. 27; Henry Esterbrook of New York, Oct. 28; Gov. Fernald of Maine, Oct. 30 and President Taft, Nov. 3. It is planned to have each of the above orators accompanied by a state official.

Mrs. Henry T. Ballard went to-day to St. Albans to attend the funeral of her niece, Mrs. E. M. Pike, whose death occurred Sunday. Mrs. Pike was a cousin of Smith S. Ballard.

In probate court this forenoon Clark H. Stewart, Anna Taft Selina and Harry G. Taft settled their accounts as executors of the last will and testament of Daniel W. Taft, late of Berlin.

The following cases have been entered with the county clerk for trial at the March term: C. P. Hatch vs. Peter Taylor of Barre, general assumpsit, $200; Constantino Canizo vs. Louis Lavin, trespass on the person, $500. The plaintiff alleges that Lavin assaulted him using a pair of brass knuckles. Eva L. McAllister vs. Donovan J. McAllister, divorce.

Mrs. Ida McIntyre, who has been visiting in the city with her mother, Mrs. James Hughes of Barre street, left this forenoon for her home, Concord, N. H.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our sincere thanks to the many relatives and friends for their kind sympathy and help, also for the purse of money. All is deeply appreciated.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Graham.

How About a Storm Coat?

That will protect you from all kinds of weather conditions? We have them. Guaranteed to give entire satisfaction.

Prices $5.00 to $20.00.

Boys' Coats $3.00 and $5.00.

LET US SHOW YOU

The Frank McWhorter Co.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Harvest supper, Universalist church, Friday night—adv.

A fine line of millinery. Mrs. Birnie, 3 Pleasant street, off Brook street.

"Who's Guilty?" and "The Grip of Evil" at the Bijou to-morrow—adv.

Velvet and velveteen remnants suitable for ladies' hats. Little Dry Goods Store, Cottage street.

A fine program is promised for the I. O. F. entertainment in Howland hall Wednesday evening. Public invited. No charge.

Dan Morse of Tremont street left last night for New York, where he will spend a few days on business in the interests of the Daylight store.

The ladies of the Universalist church are requested to meet at the home of Mrs. Agnes Bradford Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock to sew for the fair. Plenty of work for all who come.

EAST MONTPELIER.

Tacy-Hayford Wedding Took Place at Bride's Home.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hayford was the scene of a very pretty wedding Oct. 11, when their daughter, Theresa Myrtle, was united in marriage to Eugene J. Tacy of Lowell, Mass., in the presence of the immediate family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. E. Taylor and the single ring service was used. The bride was tastefully dressed in cream wool crepe, trimmed with satin. The room was prettily decorated with autumn leaves. Refreshments of ice cream, cake and coffee were served. There were many pretty and useful presents, consisting of silver and linen. Mr. and Mrs. Tacy will make their home in Lowell for the present.

After a long summer's siesta, ice skating re-entered the calendar of sports at the Ice Skating Palace, 181st street and St. Nicholas avenue Saturday evening. More than a thousand persons helped to usher in the season, several hundred being on the spacious sheet of artificial ice at one time.

The Pittsburg club in the National league announced Friday that Wheeler Johnston, a first baseman, will go to Birmingham in the Southern association.

The southern team receives Johnston along with other men in exchange for Burleigh Grimes, a pitcher who was sent to Pittsburg. Grimes enters the big show with a great reputation as a speed artist and strikeout king. As a pitcher with the southern team he was one of the best in the league and has a remarkable head to help him through the pinches. With the addition of Grimes to the Pittsburg pitching staff, they have one of the strongest in the league, and next year may see the Smoky city in the first division.

The Syracuse varsity cross-country squad has a hard season before them and Coach Thomas Keane is putting the runners through two practice sessions each day in order to get the men in the best possible condition. The squad will go to Ann Arbor, Mich., on Oct. 28, when the Syracuse football team meets the University of Michigan team and run in the morning before the football game. Negotiations are under way for a cross-country run at Springfield with the Dartmouth team on the day of the Syracuse-Dartmouth football contest. Other meetings with cross-country teams are with Colgate on Nov. 11 and at New Haven on Nov. 25.

A preliminary chess tournament will be held this week at Harvard to select 10 men to represent the Harvard varsity. Of special importance is the fact that freshmen with certain restrictions for the intercollegiate games are eligible for this team. Matches are being arranged with teams from Virginia, Brown and Cornell, and the contests are to be played on the evenings preceding the football games, with these same institutions. League games will be played with Princeton and Yale. The members of the team who go to New Haven and to the intercollegiate tournament in New York during the Christmas vacation will receive a portion of their expenses. The winner at Harvard in the spring tournament will receive a cup.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Harvest supper, Universalist church, Friday night—adv.

"A Mother's Confession." When? To-day at the Bijou—adv.

A. G. LaPoint of Elm street is passing a few days in St. Johnsbury on business.

Harley Kenerson of Averill street is spending several days in St. Albans and Swanton on business.

Harmon review, No. 1, W. B. A. O. T. M. will hold their regular meeting on Wednesday night, Oct. 18, at 7:30 o'clock.

Nelson Santau of Beckley street left this morning for Burlington, where he will spend several days visiting friends.

Among the Williamstown visitors in Barre yesterday and to-day were Hayden Theodores, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Poor and Theodore Wilfare.

Just arrived, another large assortment of hats. Best of quality at lowest possible prices. Mrs. Birnie, 3 Pleasant street, off Brook street.

Miss Cora Batchelder, who is teaching in Brandon this year, arrived in the city last night and will visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. F. F. Batchelder of 121 Hill street, for a few days.

Peter Comoli, who has been working in White River Junction during the past summer, arrived in the city last night from Milford, N. H., where he has been visiting friends during the past week.

Miss Esther Duke, a former student at Goddard seminary, arrived in the city this noon from her home in Marshfield and will visit at the home of Miss Katherine Reid of Green street for a few days.

Miss Ida B. Haviland resumed her duties in the A. P. Abbott store yesterday after a three weeks' absence on account of her mother, Mrs. W. H. Haviland, being in ill health. Mrs. Haviland seems to be much improved.

Harry Lloyd, comedian; Mrs. Edward Cummings, mezzo-soprano; Harold Trombley, tenor, and Hon. George A. Mitchell of Toronto, speaker, will give the entertainment at Howland hall Wednesday evening. Public invited.

A pleasant surprise in the form of a linen shower was given last evening at the home of Mrs. Weston Walker of Cleveland avenue in honor of Miss Bessie Wilson's approaching marriage to Henry Coxon. The house was prettily decorated with autumn leaves, chrysanthemums and ferns. Miss Wilson received a generous supply of silver and linen, for which she happily responded. Afterwards a delightful luncheon was served by the hostess, Mrs. Weston Walker, and Mrs. Arthur Lund.

The auction sale conducted by D. A. Perry of the D. A. Perry Real Estate agency yesterday afternoon at the farm of Fred L. Farnham on the road to Plainfield Center was well attended by farmers from a wide territory. The stock and other property was bid off at high prices, some of the stock being sold at the best marks brought at any auction sale this fall. Six head of yearlings averaged $32 apiece, while there were a number of calves that sold for $18 a head. Oats were bid off at 55 cents a bushel.

A deal in which Alexander M. Troup sold his furniture and a part of his fixtures, as well as the supplies in his suite of rooms in the Worthen block, to Renzo Cantu, photographer in the Tomasi block on Merchant street, was recently closed. Mr. Cantu will take immediate possession of his new property and has already moved his supplies from Merchant street to the rooms in the Worthen block. Mr. Cantu will move his family from the rooms on Merchant street where they have been living during the past few years, to the house on Grant avenue which he recently purchased and which was formerly occupied by Edward Erickson.

A few of the Foresters who are to be here in numbers to-morrow for the annual convention of the high court of Vermont and New Hampshire, Independent Order of Foresters, arrived in the city this forenoon and are quartered at Hotel Barre and the Buzzell hotel in Pearl street. Atty. Edward J. Cummings of Littleton, N. H., the high chief ranger, with Mrs. Cummings, arrived in the city last night and is registered at Hotel Barre. To-night those of the high court, including the delegates and officers, will meet the local Foresters in the Scamplin block hall. The majority of the delegates will arrive in Barre to-morrow and members of the local committee are seeing to it that ample accommodations are provided for all. There will be meetings to-morrow afternoon and evening, in the evening at Howland hall, and the officers for 1916-1917 will be elected Thursday morning.

Regular stated convention of Vincennes Lodge, No. 10, K. of P., will be held to-night at 8 o'clock.

Stated convocation of Granite chapter, No. 26, R. A. M., Masonic hall, Blanchard block, Tuesday, Oct. 17, at 7 p. m. Business and refreshment. For order E. H. P.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

Meeting of the Board of Civil Authority to Revise the Checklist

The board of civil authority will meet for the above purpose at the city court room in the city hall on Tuesdays, Oct. 24 and 31, at 8 o'clock p. m. JAMES MACKAY, City Clerk.

BARRE DAILY TIMES

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1916.

The Weather

Fair to-night, except rain or snow in east Maine. Wednesday colder and generally fair; strong west winds diminishing by Wednesday morning.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Harvest supper, Universalist church, Friday night—adv.

"A Mother's Confession." Where? At the Bijou to-day—adv.

The woman's association of the Congregational church will meet Wednesday at 2:30 p. m.

Miss Minnie F. Huntington has returned to Boston, after several weeks' visit with her mother and sister here.

Robert Q. McDonnell left this morning on a business trip to Boston and Quincy, Mass., in the interests of McDonnell & Sons.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Miles of 72 South Main street are the parents of a daughter, born Saturday, Oct. 14. The child weighed 12 pounds at birth.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Jackson and daughter, Leone, have returned to Burlington after a two days' visit at the home of B. B. Jackson.

Mrs. James Murray of Murray street and her guest, Mrs. E. C. Clemens of Bar Harbor, Me., are passing a few days in Richmond as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Freeman.

The hospital aid will have a bag day Wednesday, Oct. 25, as in former years. Donations of fruit, vegetables, preserves, jellies, pickles, etc., will be asked for. Bags will be left at every house and on the morning of Oct. 25 these will be collected. The ladies ask you to be generous on this day.

John McLean of Montpelier, who is employed as a clerk in the Union Clothing store, received a message late yesterday afternoon advising him of the sudden death of his father, Thomas R. McLean, which occurred at his home in Northfield around 4:30 o'clock. Mr. McLean's demise was wholly unexpected and followed causes which developed suddenly. Only the day before John McLean was a caller at his father's home and found him in his usual health. Mr. and Mrs. McLean went to Northfield last night. The deceased was a former resident of Graniteville and had a large following of friends in this city and Barre Town.

When the city council convenes for its regular fortnightly session this evening the aldermanic street committee will have ready for the signatures of the city fathers an agreement whereby the city conditionally disposes of itself of a small strip of land to the west of Enterprise alley, a strip along which the Barre & Chelsea railroad plans to extend a siding to be used for testing the air devices on all cars used on the Millstone hill road. The council's consent to the railroad officials' request for permission to use the land will in nowise affect the privilege of teamsters who desire to use the place for a turnout, as a planned crossing which is to extend from a point near Prospect street, will be completed early in November.

Union Dry Goods Company

A Splendid Showing of Stylish New Dresses for Fall!

A very complete showing of the newest and most fashionable styles for fall wear. Pretty Dresses of fine French Serge, Taffeta and Charmeuse, distinctive models that will appeal to every woman. Come in and let us show you this collection, whether you intend to purchase or not.

Prices range from $5.98 to $23.50

Autumn Suits

The favored styles in Autumn Suits are now here for your selection, models from the best New York manufacturers, featuring the very latest ideas. We will be more than pleased to show you these garments.

THE NEW COAT MODELS are indeed stunning, Fancy Wool Mixtures, Plushes, Velours, etc. We have now on display a very complete assortment, and very moderately priced.

THE UNION DRY GOODS COMPANY

151 North Main Street

Telephone 599-M

TALK OF THE TOWN

Christine Mayo in "A Mother's Confession," a five-act drama, at the Bijou to-day—adv.

George Bliss returned to his home in Marshfield this morning, after spending yesterday in the city on a business errand.

Special arrangements made for dinner parties; dance hall accommodations; turkey dinner next Sunday. Bancroft Inn, Plainfield. W. H. Snow, proprietor.

Mrs. Murray Richardson of Washington was a visitor in the city this morning while on her way to Springfield, Mass., for a visit of a fortnight with relatives.

Lieut. Jethro Manly, who has been passing a few days at Hotel Barre since returning with his regiment from a sojourn on the Mexican border, has gone to St. Albans, where he is to be attached to the office of Adj. L. S. Tillotson. Lieut. Manly was engaged as a sergeant-instructor at Norwich university before the call to the colors came last June. A wind that shattered many things movable along the valley this morning seemed to race, hits climax when it window was three and a half by six feet swept broadside and came against the and was too thin a plate to withstand window in the saloon owned by P. Lappa the heavy gusts of wind that continually in the Ossola block on North Main street, blew from the West.

Window Glass

Now is the time to fix up your windows for winter. We carry all common sizes of Window Glass, also Putty, Points, etc.

C. W. Averill & Co.

Telephone 500

Barre, Vermont

Announcement!

For the benefit of our customers, a celebrated Chicago Foot Specialist will give a two day Free Demonstration of Scholl's Foot Comfort Service at our store

Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 24-25

If you have any foot troubles, if you feel ache or pain, if you tire easily; if you have any foot deformity, consult him. There will be No Charge for his services nor will you be obliged to purchase your shoes here.

This New Departure is for Your Benefit

For months we have been preparing for this new feature of added service to our customers and to people who have experienced difficulty in being fitted, or whose feet have been tortured, in order to bring relief to all foot sufferers.

Our salesmen have been under special training not only in fitting foot gear but also in the proper methods of correction of foot troubles by Dr. Scholl's methods and with his appliances, which are recognized as the greatest scientific discovery in the history of foot ailments. We aim to have this store known as the store of this city where perfect foot comfort service can be had.

Henceforth This Store Will Give Scholl's Foot Comfort Service There's a Scholl Appliance for Every Foot Ailment or Deformity

No matter what your foot trouble may be, no matter what remedies you may have tried, no matter how hard you may have sought to get relief, you can now come to this store knowing that your foot troubles are at an end. Even if you have been wearing arch supports, come in and show your feet to the specialist.

Here are some foot troubles and the proper Scholl devices and preparations for their correction:

Broken Down Arches—Scholl's Tri-Spring Arch Supports correct this trouble and even the most severe cases of flat-foot.

Cramped Toes and Hammer Toes—Scholl's Foot-Easer, properly fitted, holds up foot arch, prevents crowding forward and cramping of toes. Scholl's Hammer Toe Spring for hammer toes.

Corns—Scholl's Absorb Pads—a shape and size for each toe. Scholl's Fixo Corn Plasters remove corns in 48 hours.

Over and Underlapping Toes—Scholl's Toe-Flex prevents this trouble by holding toes straight.

Weak Ankles—Scholl's Foot-Easer firmly holds up the weakened ankle by supporting the arch correctly. For children or adults.

Extreme High Insteps—Scholl's Tri-Spring Arch Supports are fitted to equalize and distribute the weight. Take pressure off the ball and make shoes fit better.

Severe Bunions—Scholl's Bunion Right straightens the toes during the daytime, while you wear Scholl's Bunion Spring at night, which acts as a lever to bring them back into place.

Scholl's Bunion Reducer is a shield of antiseptic rubber, which takes the pressure off the enlarged joint and reduces the inflammation.

Calluses on Soles of Feet—Scholl's Anterior Metatarsal Arch Support holds up the transverse arch of the foot, relieves calluses, metatarsalgia and Morton's Toe. Absorb Pads relieve pressure and stop the pain.

Take Advantage of this Specialist's Free Advice

Don't hesitate to take advantage of this Foot Specialist's visit and FREE demonstration whether you are one of our customers or not. He is here to help all foot sufferers and his services and advice are free, with no obligation on your part to buy your shoes here.

The People's Shoe Store

C. S. ANDREWS, Prop.

187 North Main Street

Barre, Vermont

SCHOLL'S FOOT-EASER

FOR TIRED ACHING FEET,
WEAK ANKLES
AND TO REST
THE FEET

SCHOLL'S BUNION RIGHT

STRAIGHTENS CROOKED
OVERLAPPING TOES,
THE CAUSE OF BUNIONS

SCHOLL'S ANTERIOR METATARSAL

FOR CRAMPS
AND PAINS
IN TOES
AND BALL
OF FOOT,
FOR MORTON'S
TOE

SCHOLL'S FIXO CORN PLASTER

A DIFFERENT KIND OF CORN REMEDY

SCHOLL'S TOE-FLEX

FOR OVERLAPPING TOES
AND
SOFT CORNS BETWEEN TOES

SCHOLL'S BUNION REDUCER

REDUCES ENLARGEMENT
RELIEVES PRESSURE
STOPS THE PAIN

SCHOLL'S ABSORB PADS

A SIZE FOR EVERY TOE—
CORN AND FOR EVERY CALLOUS
ON BOTTOM
OF FOOT

SCHOLL'S BUNION SPRING

ACTS AS A LEVER FOR DRAWING
CROOKED BUNION
TOES STRAIGHT

